

G. Marvin Beeman, B.S., D.V.M.

Dr. Beeman received his D.V.M. from Colorado State University in 1957. He practiced equine veterinary medicine at the Littleton Large Animal Clinic, from 1957 to 1997 where he served as president and now is working part-time. His professional interest is primarily equine lameness.

Dr. Beeman is a member of national, state and local veterinary societies. He has served on many of their committees, executive boards and liaison offices. He is a past president of the American Association of Equine Practitioners, the Colorado Veterinary Medical Association; and is a former trustee of the American Veterinary Medical Association's Professional Liability Insurance Trust. He served one term on the Colorado State Board of Veterinary Examiners.

For several years, he served as a faculty affiliate in the department of clinical sciences, College of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, Colorado State University and as a member of their equine advisory committee. He has published and presented scientific papers in the United States and several foreign countries.

Dr. Beeman is serving or has served the equine industry as a trustee of the American Horse Council and chairman of A.H.C. Health and Regulatory Committee, senior veterinary advisor for the American Quarter Horse Association and a member and past chairman of the A.O.H.A. Research Committee; United States Department of Agriculture Equine Advisory Committee, and two terms on the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture's Advisory Committee on Foreign Animal and Poultry Diseases; Trustee, Trustee Emeritus and Veterinary Vice President of the Morris Animal Foundation and the Colorado State University Equine Science Program Horse Advisory Committee. He has served as an instructor for many breed's judging seminars and educational seminars.

Dr. Beeman was chosen as the Colorado Veterinarian of the year in 1975, the recipient in 1978 of the Special Service Award Honor Alumnus, College of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, and the Honor alumnus award for Outstanding Professional Achievement, Colorado State University. The American Quarter Horse Association has honored him with the position of Honorary Vice President and induction into their Hall of Fame. The American Farrier's inducted him into their International Horseman's Hall of Fame for his contribution to the Horse's Health and Welfare. He was inducted into the International Stockman's Hall of Fame for his contribution to the equine industry. He was awarded the American Horse Council's distinguished service award, and recipient of the American Association of Equine Practitioners "Beyond the Call" Award.

Dr. Beeman is currently serving on the Executive Committee as second Vice President of the National Western Stock Show. He is a Joint Master and Huntsman of the Arapahoe Hunt Club.