

BOULDER COUNTY HORSE ASSOCIATION 2005 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

HILDY ARMOUR (Jamestown) has been on the BCHA Board since 1999, serving as secretary, VP External, and currently as president. She is also on the Boards of Lefthand Fire District and Joder Arabian Ranch, where she keeps her Thoroughbred gelding, Rio.

BARBARA HAALAND-MICHAELS (Hygiene) has been a member of BCHA for many years and on the board for one year. She is making regular updates on the BCHA website and helps with advertising for "The Horse's Mouth." Barb has volunteered many hours at the National Western, is a past 4-H project leader, and enjoys trail rides with her Thoroughbred, Shadow. Along with her husband, Dan, she owns Rabbit Mountain Equestrian Center.

PAT JARVIS (Boulder) has been on the BCHA Board and served as editor of "The Horse's Mouth" from 2000-2004. She is currently VP Communications and lends an artistic touch with her graphics, publications and photographs. Pat has been involved in organizing the Horse Lover's Fling in past years. With her three Arabians and small farm, she is never lacking for things to do.

DAN MICHAELS (Hygiene) and his wife, Barb, own Rabbit Mountain Equestrian Center, LLC. With his Thoroughbred, Ready to Go, Dan enjoys jumping, trail riding, and herding cattle. Dan is a volunteer and member of the National Western Stock Show and has served as a 4-H project leader. He has actively represented BCHA at public meetings and the Fairgrounds Improvement Project.

SANDRA ROSEWELL (Longmont) has volunteered for several BCHA functions over the last two years and joined the board this year. She has two horses, Regalo & Scotty, that she boards at Joder Ranch, where she is on the Board of Boarders. Sandra is also a long time volunteer at the Colorado Therapeutic Riding Center where she is on both the Schooling and Barn Teams. She holds a NARHA Riding Instructor Certification, but is currently not teaching.

SIDNEY SHINEDLING (Boulder) has been involved with horses since 2001, when he began volunteering at the local horse humane society. He is continuing to serve BCHA as Treasurer and is actively involved with the Fling committee.

ROSE VALENTINE (Boulder) has been a member of BCHA since 1997. She has volunteered at many BCHA events and is continuing to serve as secretary for BCHA. Her two horses are on their property just outside the Boulder city limits. Rose is invested in issues faced by Boulder County horse enthusiasts. She thinks BCHA is an effective format to inform and educate the community about horse related issues and to protect and expand practical and recreational needs of the equestrian.

SUZANNE WEBEL (Longmont) and her husband, Ray Bovet, are the owners of Starlight Farm where her family cares for their three horses and several boarders and where she grows certified weed-free hay. Suzanne is a founding member of the Boulder Area Trails Coalition (BATCO). She has been a BCHA member since 1975, has served as a board member since 1995 and as president from 1999 to 2002. She is currently serving as VP-External.
