

LIVING & ARTS:
LIVING IN A
SURVEILLANCE
SOCIETY

PAGE 1D

Boulder County's newspaper

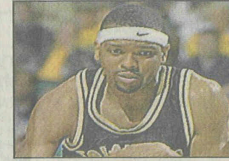

www.dailycamera.com

SUNDAY CAMERA

March 2, 2003 • $1.00

SPORTS:
BUFFS EARN THEIR FIRST BIG 12
ROAD WIN

PAGE

Ranking al-Qaida captured

By Kathy Gannon
Associated Press

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan — Khalid Shaikh Mohammed, the suspected mastermind of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks, was handed over to the United States and taken to an undisclosed location outside the country, a senior government official said today.

"He's no longer in Pakistan," the official said on condition of anonymity. He said Moham-

Khalid Shaikh Mohammed handed over to the United States

med was handed over to U.S. authorities after being interrogated by Pakistani officials.

Mohammed was arrested along with an unidentified man of Middle Eastern origin and a Pakistani identified as Ahmed Abdul Qadoos, a 42-year-old member of one of the country's main religious parties, Jamaat-e-Islami.

INSIDE

● Mohammed made bin Laden's idea's happen. Page 9A

The other foreigner captured in the raid was "also proving to be an important man," the official said without disclosing his identity. That man and Qadoos were still in Pakistan.

Mohammed's arrest was a

ON THE WEB

● 'Fantastic,' Bush says upon hearing news of arrest.
● The names and status of some major al-Qaida figures.
www.dailycamera.com

spectacular victory for the U.S.-led war on terrorism. He was captured Saturday in a joint raid by Pakistani and CIA and Pakistani agents, officials said.

Mohammed is the suspected mastermind of the Sept. 11, 2001, attacks and a senior operative in Osama bin Laden's al-Qaida network.

The arrest of Mohammed and the two other men outside the Pakistani capital, Islamabad, likely will hurt the terrorist organization's ability to launch m attacks could prov the Un States y new clues the hunt bin Laden.

Mohammed

"It's hard overstate how significant is," White House spokes

Please see MOHAMMED on

Budget cuts looming at CU

Boulder campus may have to reduce budget by millions

By Kate Larsen
Camera Staff Writer

A small sign posted on one office door in a basement at the University of Colorado reads:

INSIDE

● Additional coverage.
Page 3A

"Due to the current financial restraints the light at the end of the tunnel will be turned off until further notice."

Budget cuts are coming. Tight economic times are bad

Please see BOULDER on 3A

Ward resigns from USOC

By John Marshall
Associated Press

DENVER — Lloyd Ward quit as CEO of the U.S. Olympic Committee on Saturday. can-

KLONDIKE DERBY

Klondike Shocker-Troop 69 of Louisville, CO shows the big guys how it's done. Only 6 of 60 teams starting finished. Troop 69 had two of the finishing teams. The Pirate patrol, with 5 scouts that had never been to Klondike took third place overall.

More photos from the Klondike Derby
www.dailycamera.com

CARMEL ZUCKER / Daily Camera

Iraq begins destroying banned missile

White House says disarmament not enough to avoid war

By Niko Price
Associated Press

BAGHDAD, Iraq — Iraq began crushing banned missiles with bulldozers Saturday, meeting a U.N. demand in an attempt to prevent a devastating

INSIDE

● Turkey's parliament turns down U.S. request to station troops.
● Arab League summit ends on sour note.
Page 9A

U.S.-led attack. Washington dismissed the move and continued to push for war.

But President Bush's preparations for a military showdown with Iraq suf-

ON THE WEB

● Iraqi jets repeatedly penetrated no-fly zone, U.S. military says.
● Opposition plans an Iraq after Saddam.
● Pope sends cardinal to meet with Bush.
www.dailycamera.com

fered a severe setback when Turkey's parliament failed to approve the deployment of 62,000 U.S. combat troops. The United States wants to use Turkey to open a northern front against Iraq if it launched a war.

Even Arab nations failed unity over the Iraq crisis, with Iraq descending into an exchange of insults between Saudi Arabia's prince and Libya's Moammar Gaddafi. The United Arab Emirates called on Iraq President Saddam Hussein to step down, but the leaders eventually agreed on a declaration rejecting aggression on Iraq.

Please see IRAQ